Diomedes Automatic Collection

In Greek legend, Diomedes was one of the greatest heroes who fought against the Trojans. With his discipline and courage he played a leading part in the War. He was endowed with the abilities needed to rule over the city which brought it wealth, stability and respect from other rulers as he was admired for his political skills. His qualities are applied to the design concept of this Sultana collection, Diomedes.

Sultana launched the “Diomedes” Automatic collection which combines a strong personal character with undeniable charm. The watch offers a classical appearance with applied luminous indexes, classical hands and an eminently legible day and date display. The “Diomedes” Automatic collection, the watch to reflect your own outstanding achievements.
